

frontdesk

SHOPPING | DINING | ENTERTAINMENT

OCTOBER
04

what's hot [™] travel accessories

INTREPID TRAVELER

Stylish essentials for the jetsetter

day trippers

For a serious day of sightseeing, sling a light mesh-and-nylon shoulder bag by Koie, $48, around your chest or back. With separate compartments for change, cell phones, maps and everything else, you won't leave the hotel without it. Available at Public I, 773.772.9088 or www.publicifashion.com.

perfect collar

Every man knows how hard it is to keep track of shirt-collar stays—even at home. So when you travel, store your stays on this sleek magnetic ring by Stayclip, $14.95, which comes with two sets of stays in white and chrome at various sizes. Available at www.stayclip.com.

call the shots

This leather and chrome flask with four stackable shot glasses, $160, gives you reason to raid the hotel mini-bar. Whether you're celebrating the closing of a business deal or mixing drinks on-the-go, this handy barware accessory is small enough to pack. Available at Neiman Marcus, 312.642.5900.

The Stayclip Brand appeared in Front Desk Magazine's October 2004 issue. Front Desk is distributed throughout Chicago and Los Angeles in premium department stores such as Nordstrom and hotels including Four Seasons, Ritz Carlton, Beverly Wilshire, and many others.